Please read and sign at the end stating you have fully read and understand the information below.

CLIENT/THERAPIST RELATIONSHIP: You and your therapist have a professional relationship existing exclusively for therapeutic treatment. This relationship functions most effectively when it remains strictly professional and involves only the therapeutic aspect. Your therapist can best serve your needs by focusing solely on therapy and avoiding any type of social or business relationship.

AVAILABLE SERVICES: I offer an array of counseling services, including individual and group counseling services. Effective psychotherapy is founded on mutual understanding and good rapport between client and therapist. It is my intent to convey the policies and procedures used in my practice, and I will be pleased to discuss any questions or concerns you may have.

RISKS AND BENEFITS: Counseling and psychotherapy are beneficial, but as with any treatment, there are some inherent risks. During counseling, you will have discussions about personal issues which may bring to the surface uncomfortable emotions such as anger, guilt, sadness and shame. The benefits of counseling can far outweigh any discomfort encountered during the process, however. Some of the possible benefits are improved personal relationships, reduced feelings of emotional distress, and specific problem solving. I cannot guarantee these benefits, but my desire is to work with you to attain your personal goals for counseling.

COUNSELING: Your first visit will be an assessment session in which we will collaborate to help determine your concerns, and if we both agree that I can meet your therapeutic needs, a plan of treatment will be developed. Should you choose not to follow the plan of treatment provided to you by your therapist, services to you may be terminated. My goal here is to provide the most effective therapeutic experience available to you. If at any time you feel that we are not a good fit, please discuss this matter with me or Bonnie Knight, the owner at Inland Northwest Therapy, to determine if transferring to a more suitable therapist is right for you. If you decide that other services would be more appropriate, I will assist you in finding a provider to meet your needs. Wellness is more than the absence of disease; it is a state of optimal well-being. It goes beyond the curing of illness to achieving health. Through the ongoing integration of our physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual self, each person has the opportunity to create and preserve a whole and happy life. My services are designed to provide my clients an integrated solution for their mind, body, spirit, and life to enhance their lives and resolve issues.

YOUR RIGHTS: It is my policy that all individuals who are seeking and/or receiving services from any of our programs will be provided with effective and efficient services. These services will be directed toward health and habilitation. As an individual receiving services at our offices, you have the following rights: To be treated with consideration and respect for human dignity; To receive quality treatment regardless of race, religion, sex, age, ethnic background, mental and/or physically disabling condition; To be provided confidentiality and protection from any unwarranted disclosure regarding your treatment; To be involved in planning your treatment and to be informed about your treatment process; To be involved in your discharge and aftercare planning; To refuse treatment to the extent permitted by law and to be informed of the possible consequences of your actions; To expect continuity of care from one service to another, should you need another service; To examine and receive an explanation about the bill for your services; To schedule an appointment with your counselor to review your record and receive any needed explanation about the contents

CONFIDENTIALITY: I follow all ethical standards prescribed by state and federal law. I am required by practice guidelines and standards of care to keep records of your counseling. These records are confidential with the exceptions noted below and in the Notice of Privacy Practices provided to you. Discussions between a therapist and a client are confidential. No information will be released without the client's written consent unless mandated by law. Possible exceptions to confidentiality include but are not limited to the following situations: child abuse; abuse of the elderly or disabled; abuse of patients in mental health facilities; sexual exploitation; AIDS/HIV infection and possible transmission; criminal prosecutions; child custody cases; suits in which the mental health of a party is in issue; situations where the therapist has a duty to disclose, or where, in the therapist's judgment, it is necessary to warn or disclose; fee disputes between the therapist and the client; a negligence suit brought by the client against the therapist; or the filing of a complaint with the licensing or certifying board. If you have any questions regarding confidentiality, please bring them to my attention. By signing this Information and Consent Form, you are giving consent to me to share confidential information with all persons mandated by law and with the agency that referred you and the insurance carrier responsible for providing your mental health care services and payment for those services, and you are also releasing and holding harmless the undersigned therapist from any departure from your right of confidentiality that may result.

DUTY TO WARN/DUTY TO PROTECT: If I believe there is risk of harm to me, my child, or another human being, I hereby specifically give consent to my therapist to contact the any person who is in a position to prevent harm to me or another, including, but not limited to, the person in danger. I also give consent to my therapist to contact the following person(s) in addition to any medical or law enforcement personnel deemed appropriate:

(Client or Client guardian signature)　　　　　　　　　　(Date)

(Therapist Signature)　　　　　　　　　　(Date)

INCAPACITY OR DEATH: I understand that, in the event of the death or incapacitation of the undersigned therapist, it will be necessary to assign my case to another therapist and for that therapist to have possession of my treatment records. By my signature on this form, I hereby consent to another licensed mental health professional, selected by the undersigned therapist, to take possession of my records and provide me copies at my request, and/or to deliver those records to another therapist of my choosing.

CONSENT TO TREATMENT: By signing this Client Information and Consent Form as the Client or Guardian of said Client, I acknowledge that I have read, understand, and agree to the terms and conditions contained in this form. I have been given appropriate opportunity to address any questions or request clarification for anything that is unclear to me. I am voluntarily agreeing to receiving mental health assessment, treatment and services for me (or my child if said child is the client), and I understand that I may stop such treatment or services at any time. NOTE: If you are consenting to treatment of a minor child, if a court order has been entered with respect to the conservatorship of said child, or impacting your rights with respect to consent to the child's mental health care and treatment, I will not render services to your child until the therapist has received and reviewed a copy of the most recent applicable court order.

I hereby consent to treatment by Inland Northwest Therapy with all terms and conditions listed above.
